KENNEDY'S PLAN TO HUMILIATE THE SOUTH

NEGRO FEDERAL JUDGES

Kennedy, the candidate of the NAACP, promised the National Bar Association (a Negro group) as follows:

"With more than 4,000 Negro lawyers in this country there are many outstanding Negros from whom to choose future judges. President Truman led the way in appointing the first Negro life-time federal judge, and the first Negro on the Court of Appeals. But the fact that only one other Negro has been appointed as a life-time federal judge shows how far we still have to go in making our judiciary representative of the best of all our people.

"I assure you that in a new Democratic administration there will be far better representation, on the basis of merit, of persons of all our racial groups, including particularly those who in the past have been excluded on the basis of prejudice." (The State, 9/3/60).

RADICAL CIVIL RIGHTS PLEDGES

Kennedy has also pledged to enact and impose upon the South, through Federal Courts, the most punative civil rights program since Reconstruction. He has solemnly pledged:

1. To force every Southern school district to desegregate by 1963.
2. To eliminate by Federal law all poll taxes and literacy tests so that any person can vote regardless of whether he can read or write.
3. To provide for all races access to "all areas of community life" (churches, clubs, societies, and homes).
4. To pass "Title III" which will authorize the Attorney General to bring integration suits in the name of the United States.
5. To curtail the historic powers of the House Rules Committee which, under Representative Howard W. Smith of Virginia, has been a restraining influence on radical legislation.
6. To enact a Federal FEPC, which would force employers to hire persons of all races.

THE COMPANY KENNEDY KEEPS

Roy Wilkins, Adam Clayton Powell, "Scoop" Williams, Walter Reuther, Jimmie Roosevelt, Oliver Hill, the NAACP and the ADA are vigorously backing Kennedy and their radical civil rights plan.

VIRGINIANS IN STRANGE COMPANY

It is distressing to see certain Virginians, led by Governor Almond and Francis Pickins Miller, working for candidates more hostile towards the South than any since Reconstruction. They tell you there is nothing to choose between the candidates -- but the NAACP and ADA know better. So do Wilkins, Powell, Reuther, Roosevelt and Hill.

THEY ALL CHOOSE KENNEDY

THE CHOICE IS YOURS!

If you want

1. all schools desegrated by 1963,
2. the other radical proposals set forth above, and
3. Federal judges from "all racial groups" to implement this plan to humiliate the South -- then vote Kennedy, with the NAACP and the ADA.

VIRGINIANS WHO OPPOSE THIS RADICAL PLAN SHOULD MAKE THEIR OPPOSITION EFFECTIVE
